

NORNIER

1973

HANOVER SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL, HANOVER, PENNSYLVANIA

Mr. Frank McFalls

We dedicate the 1973 Nornir to Mr. Frank McFalls, our teacher and friend, who has given us so much these past four years. We are deeply indebted to him for all the time he has given us as well as all the headaches he must have suffered because of us. We realize "thank-you" isn't a very big word to express our gratitude for all he has done, but we hope he realizes just how much he has been appreciated.

CLASS OF 1975

The class of 1975 planned many projects this year. Their first project, selling Hanover sweat-shirts, was intended to inspire the spirit of all the students. They did well in the magazine sale, having the second highest total. The class also sponsored a very enjoyable dance featuring "Mayflower" after the Southwest-Hanover basketball game. "The Hotline" was the title of the play they put on for Drama Night. Many Sophomores participated in sports on the Junior Varsity teams showing their potential. Everyone is looking forward anxiously to next year.

The Sophomore class officers are: Matt Noble, President; Lu Anne Dunkinson, Vice President; Erin Hoff, Secretary; and Carolyn Fiery, Treasurer.

CLASS OF 1974

The Class of 1974 started off the year with the election of the Junior Princess, Julie Shaver. The magazine sale, which put a sizable amount in our treasury, brought out the school spirit of the Juniors. We had a sub sale and made a profitable sum on this also. "Along Came Harriet," the play which the Juniors choose for Drama Night, showed the talent which is contained in the class. The Class of 1974 also represented Hanover High in both Varsity and Junior Varsity levels of sports. Plans for the Prom for the Seniors turned out quite successful and the Seniors enjoyed it very much. The Class of 1974 is now looking forward to a very rewarding and successful year as seniors next year at Hanover High School.

The Junior class officers are: Randy Test, President; Joan Rutters, Vice-President; Joanie Becker, Secretary; and Carol Koenig, Treasurer.
